Thanks. This seems familiar - perhaps Downey has the only copy.

We decided some time ago to include in the followup a review of what is going on with that monument and what can be done to provide more economic opportunities from it. This would start with a letter to the Delegates and Governors saying we will be undertaking the review, so it wouldn't be a behind-the-scene effort. I have some background on one part of how it got this way if you are interested and have some free time at some point.
